TWELFTH NIGHT.

Advises from all points indicate that press, pulpit and public unite in praise of Mr. Joseph Shipman's magnificent revival of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," which is meeting with such unequalled success on tour this season. The star, Miss Charlotte Burnett, seems to be creating a furore in her performance of "Viola," and is being hailed by leading critics as the legitimate successor of Miss Ada Rehan, undoubtedly the most popular and gifted Shakespearean comedienne that has ever appeared in this country. She is supported by that sterling actor, Mr. George Seybolt, as Malvolio, prominent in the support of Charles Dalton, Julia Marlowe and other well known stars. This play comes to the Washington tonight, and judging by the long list of names of prominent citizens who have secured tickets society will be out in force.

PRESENTS THE ISSUES

Colonel J. H. Davidson of Chicago Speaks at the Courthouse

Notwithstanding Saturday is an off day for public gatherings, there were several hundred assembled in the Courthouse that afternoon at 1 o'clock to hear Colonel J. H. Davidson of Chicago speak on the public issues of the day.

He is a man of fine presence and an orator in every sense of the word.

He has a fluent flow of elegant diction and a clear silver-toned voice that could be distinctly heard in all parts of the house. His manner of addressing his audience is argumentative, persuasive, void of vituperation and free from all offensiveness. He spoke in glowing terms of William Jennings Bryan as a man of high character, sincere in his convictions and the real brains of the Democratic party.

He pictured the growth and increase of wealth of this country during the forty-four years the Republican party has had control of affairs, less the eight years of the Cleveland regime.

He called attention to the fact that the eight years of Democratic control were years of business depression, Coxey armies and free soup houses.

He said the present campaign was one of general apathy, and attributed it to the fact that the people were more than satisfied with the management of governmental affairs, and that they were willing to let them remain as they are. He predicted Roosevelt's re-election by a tremendous electoral majority, and that the country would go on prospering under Republican rule as it had in the past.

He paid a just tribute to Judge Bennett, the Republican candidate for Congress; said he was a clean, straight man, worthy of the hearty support of every Republican in the District, and if elected would shed luster and glory on the party.

Taken as a whole it was an appeal that wins votes, and it is to be regretted that more did not hear his able speech.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT

Mrs. Jennie Whanger Killed on the C. and O. Saturday Night

A shocking and fatal accident occurred Saturday night about 9:45 in the West End C. and O. Yards, whereby Mrs. Jennie Whanger was so terribly mangled that she died at 11:30 o'clock, less than two hours afterwards.

There are many conflicting stories in regard to the matter, but the most lucid and reasonable conjecture is that the unfortunate woman had been up town where she made several purchases and had taken the railroad as the shortest way home.

She was walking on the North side of the track, and when she had reached a point opposite her home below the Depot a freight train was between her and the gate to her yard.

Thinking the train standing on the track a dead one, she attempted to pass between the bumpers to the other side, and as she did so a yard engine bumped the rear end of the train, knocking her down and the wheels passing over her lower limbs, cutting one leg off nearly to the thigh and mashing the other to a pulp.

She was carried to her nearby home where she received medical aid, but she was beyond the help of human skill and died as above stated.

Although conscious for some time, she did not tell her version how the accident occurred.

The deceased was the wife of A. J. Whanger, Section Boss on the C. and O., and had been a resident of this city for the past eight years.

Mrs. Whanger was 29 years old and was an attractive, comely woman.

She had been married fourteen years and besides her husband she leaves three bright children, two boys and one girl, whose ages range from 9 to 13 years.

The remains were taken to Ronceverte, W. Va., on No. 2 yesterday at 1:30, where her people live and where the funeral and interment will take place.

TRACTION MEETING

Germantown Citizens Show Much Interest in Proposed Line

As foreshadowed exclusively in Saturday's LEDGER, a meeting was held at Germantown that afternoon to inaugurate the movement for a traction line connecting that pretty village with Maysville, via Washington.

There was a good representation of local citizens at the Town Hall, with Colonel R. R. Maltby of Washington and Messrs. C. L. Sallee, Mayor Stallcup, John Duley, W. W. Ball and Thomas A. Davis of this city.

Colonel Evan S. Lloyd was named for Chairman and Mr. John Wallingford for Secretary and Treasurer—both earnest, responsible gentlemen.

Short speeches were made by Messrs. Duley, Sallee, Davis, Maltby, Ball and Stallcup, all lending words of encouragement to the enterprise; Mr. Sallee outlining a beginning by securing a preliminary survey, and Mr. Davis starting a subscription to pay for same.

In a few minutes these sums were secured—

Colonel R. R. Maltby.....10

Chairman Lloyd appointed Messrs. Joseph F. Walon, Clarence L. Sallee, Colonel R. R. Maltby, E. Cren. Slack and J. S. Asbury—one from each of the Precincts through which the road is projected—and these are authorized to procure the necessary survey and make report to a future meeting.

Mr. Sallee was chosen Chairman of this Committee, and was also made Corresponding Secretary.

The beginning is in safe hands.

Now, let everyone talk for the enterprise, work for it, and subscribe all he can toward it, and THE LEDGER will guarantee that two thousand from this city will attend "Maysville Day" at the Germantown Fair—riding through "God's Country" on a traction line!

It may be interesting, if embarrassing, to ask Mr. KENOE if he favors a re-enactment of the Democratic Tariff Law of 1894.

AFTER a brick house had fallen on them, it was quite amusing to see the tattered remnants of the opposition scrambling for even a hind seat in the band wagon.

THE Democratic papers that print in their news columns pictures of the farmer driving to the Bank with a hayframe filled with moneybags, the receipts from his high-priced crops, and in their editorial columns denounce the Republican policies which have brought about this result,—well, they are just a little bit inconsistent, don't you think?

HENRY G. DAVIS, the Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, is an old man, a very old man, but he certainly should remember enough of the Buchanan Administration, long enough ago, as it seems, not to risk a comparison in any manner with that of today. One has but to turn back to a message which BUCHANAN himself as President sent to Congress for testimony as to what the conditions of the country then were. In his first annual message, that of 1857, President BUCHANAN declared—

"In the midst of unsurpassed plenty in all the productions of agriculture and in all the elements of National wealth, we find our manufactures suspended, our public works retarded, our private enterprises of different kinds abandoned and thousands of useful laborers thrown out of employment and reduced to want."

NONE need be ashamed of the vote he casts for Judge BENNETT.

"THERE are two Roosevelts in the field—the ideal, the legendary ROOSEVELT, as he once appeared, and as many people imagine him still to be; and the real ROOSEVELT, as he has since developed. There are, no doubt, many good citizens who think of voting for ROOSEVELT, having the legendary ROOSEVELT in mind; but they will do well to consider that if elected, the real ROOSEVELT will be President."—From Carl Schurz's Letter.

Mr. SCHURZ may succeed in his purpose of proving that there are two Roosevelts, and he may not, says The Times-Star; but there can be no question that he has been successful in demonstrating that there are about fifty Schurzes—one for every year of his public life in America. The chameleon of American politics is the only term that applies to him. He has changed parties so often that it is almost impossible to keep count of him. The first public official to run the country contrary to his views was ABRAHAM LINCOLN. While LINCOLN was busy trying to solve the many problems of the Civil War, SCHURZ busied himself with attacking him in the public press. Fortunately, LINCOLN's reply to one of SCHURZ's scurrilous letters has been preserved. A less rhinoceros-hided individual would have forever afterward held his peace. In 1872 SCHURZ became a Liberal Republican; in 1884 he bolted BLAINE; in 1896 he supported McKINLEY, and in 1900 bolted McKINLEY and supported BRYAN. It is a pity that BRYAN did not run again this year, in order that the many-sided SCHURZ could have kept up his record and bolted him.

Political Pickings

KENTUCKY'S BLUNDERING LAWMAKERS.

Carlisle Mercury.

The new Registration Law shows quite a singular state of affairs. The law requires the officers appointed to hold the regular November election to hold the registration, and Jeff Craycraft, W. P. Ham, Robert Gillispie, James H. Collins, Ed. Collins, F. B. Henry and H. N. Rankin will have to be on hands at their voting places on the first Tuesday in October from 6 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night, and not one of them is entitled to register, as they are not residents of the city. Funny, isn't it?

TO MAKE A MINE

Kentucky Citizens Interested in Opening Up Utah Land

Messrs. D. Sam White of this city, J. S. Wallingford of Paris and C. R. White have just completed an inspection of the Farmington group of mining claims in Stead canyon, Utah, and have decided to begin operations at once.

In company with a mining expert the gentlemen have spent the greater part of the past two weeks in making a thorough examination and investigation of this group of claims with a view to learning just what the prospects were of making a mine out of the property.

There are abundant indications of valuable mineral deposits and it is the belief of competent men that proper development will produce a bonanza.

All the plans of the company have not been made public yet, but it is known three shifts will be put to work at once and work pushed to completion as rapidly as human agency and the latest improved machinery can do it.

The many friends of Colonel Tony Pfeiffer will be glad to know he is prospering in his Parisian home.

Mr. M. C. Chisholm received a letter on Saturday from his son, Robert, at Breeding, W. Va., containing the sad news of the death of his little daughter, Mary Drake, on October 6th, aged 7 months and 20 days. The little one was left without a mother when only seven days old.

WHAT IS A CARTLOAD?

Why Not an Ordinance to Regulate What's Often Robbery?

It might be well for the City Council to prescribe what constitutes a cartload.

Some honest teamsters haul a cartload of ashes or gravel and charge 20 cents; some who are not so honest haul a wheelbarrow load in a cart, but charge 20 cents just the same—and the charge is uniform whether the distance is six squares or only a hundred yards.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Rev. A. B. Davidson to Assist at the Third Street M. E. Church

Revival services will start off the new Conference year at the Third Street M. E. Church, Rev. M. A. Banker, Pastor.

The Pastor has been fortunate in securing the great evangelistic singer, the Rev. A. B. Davidson, to take charge of the singing during the meetings, which start on Thursday, October 13th.

Mr. Davidson has been very successful in his work, and has been engaged throughout the North and West in this work and has sung his war into the hearts of the people.

No pains will be spared to make these services attractive and instructive. They will be popular and cheerful, no formalities, and a hearty welcome will be extended to all.

The song service will begin at 7 o'clock and the regular service at 7:30. Come and bring your friends.

Remember the date, Thursday, October 13th.

Saturday the West End home of Councilman and Mrs. J. H. Dersch was given over to the Misses and Masters. It was a birthday party given in honor of their daughter, Lula, who had attained her eleventh birthday. The hours were from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The program for the afternoon was music, games and dancing, and right merrily did all present enter into the enjoyment of the occasion.

It was a rosebud garden of girls and in their varied and handsome toilets presented a scene of kaliedoscopic beauty.

The dining-room was tastefully decorated with choice autumn flowers, ferns and pot plants. At the plate of each guest was a peculiar shaped motto, which on being opened was converted into a cap. They were of many colors and were worn on the head while dining. In the center of the table was a birthday cake surrounded by eleven lighted candles which represented the years of the little Miss.

After a delightful afternoon the guests spoke, parting words to their fair young hostess, wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Those present were—Misses Christine Yazell, Florence Stoker, Irene Kehoe, Margaret and Helen Dawson, Edith Dinger, Carrie Lehman, Katie and Bessie Bauer, Blanche and Ethel O'Brien, Margaret Hasson, Ella Davenport, Minnie Belle Powell, and Masters Pickett and Charles McClanahan, George Bauer, Leslie Powell, Theodore Cullen, Stanley Lowery, Lloyd Senteney, Willie Bierley.

ANOTHER SNAKE STORY

A Young Rattler Started For Church Yesterday Morning

Yesterday morning about 11:30 two gentlemen were wending their way up Market street and when opposite the First Baptist Church they discovered a snake about a foot long making for the door of the Church.

From the vicious manner in which it fought it is supposed to have been a small rattlesnake—probably the product of some one of the number left here by the snake show in January's Building last spring.

If it had succeeded in getting into the Church and gathered itself in the furlow of some lady, there would evidently have been a panic and a fire alarm sent in.

Colorado produced 1,800,000 pounds of honey in 1903, and the output this year is expected to be considerably larger. Epicures declare that Colorado honey is the finest produced in any state of the Union.

IT'S FOOLISH

To Ignore Such Convincing Proof as This Maysville Citizen Gives You Here.

You may differ from your neighbors in many important questions of the day. Your opinions may coincide with those of the minority or those of the majority, and still you may be in doubt. But you can hardly be skeptical about the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills when you read such emphatic local endorsement as the following:

Mrs. J. W. Gibson of 113 West Fourth street says:

"The value of Doan's Kidney Pills is quickly manifest by their use. I obtained them at J. Jas. Woods & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and although my experience was not extensive, it was because their curative powers were so quickly demonstrated that extended use was unnecessary. The quick relief from backache which was obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills causes me to recommend this valuable medicine whenever opportunity offers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box.
